

The Big Story - Footsteps to the Feast for Bible Sunday

Footmarks

Spend time with a Bible story by presenting it using 3-dimensional materials. This is a reflective approach to the Bible, based on the method known as Godly Play.

Gather the group in a semicircle, using a back row of benches or chairs if necessary so that all the children can see the following presentation of the story clearly.

Tell the story using some carefully chosen items that you draw out of a golden box or from a tray, in the style of Godly Play. The objects should all be of about the same size.

The presentation focuses on one particular story from the Bible in which a young child hears God speaking to him. Young Samuel was training to be a priest in the shrine when God called him. God is always speaking to us, particularly through the stories of the Bible, and it is often the young who can be most open to hearing his voice.

This story should be told slowly and carefully, focusing on the story itself, not the audience. Remember that this story is as much for the storyteller as for those listening. The story can be read in the Bible in 1 Samuel chapters 1 - 3.

For this presentation, you will need the following items, choosing or making 3D objects that are both simple and attractive:

- a large piece of red felt as a base cloth
- a pinboard in two sections, about 30cm by 60cm. Cover the floor of the smaller half with gold card (this is the inner courtyard) and mark an entrance to it with black tape. Use this tape also to mark out some rooms on one side of the larger section (the outer courtyard), in one of which Eli will sleep; similarly mark the main entrance to the shrine a block of wood painted gold to represent the ark of the covenant
- a smaller, plain block to be the altar, located outside the main door to the shrine
- wooden figures for Hannah, Eli, young Samuel and Eli's two sons
- a small bundle of cloth to represent Samuel's new clothes brought by Hannah each year

For the wooden figures, you might like to consider some of the ELC doll families, suitably reclothed in longer robes.

Storyteller

Lay out the red base cloth and then place on it, centrally, the pinboard with the shrine outline.

The time of the Judges was nearly at an end. The temple in Jerusalem had not yet been built. The ark of the covenant was in the shrine of the Lord at Shiloh.

Hold the ark in your hand for a moment, then place it against the back wall of the inner courtyard.

Eli the priest served there with his two sons.

Place Eli by the main door and the sons beside the altar outside the main door.

One day, Eli was sitting by the door of the shrine.

A woman came in. Her name was Hannah.

Bring Hannah into the outer courtyard of the shrine.

She was crying. She had come to Shiloh with her husband to worship God. Hannah prayed in her heart, 'Oh God, I am so unhappy. Please give me a son. If you do, I will give him to you.'

Eli thought at first that Hannah had been drinking. But when he realized she was sad, he blessed her.

Cup your hand over Hannah.

Hannah stopped crying and went home with her husband.

Move Hannah to the edge of the base cloth to your right.

God remembered Hannah and answered her prayer. She did have a baby.

She called him Samuel.

Place Samuel next to Hannah.

Hannah remembered her promise to God. When Samuel was three years old, she took him to the shrine at Shiloh.

Bring Hannah and Samuel to a point just outside the main entrance to the shrine.

'Do you remember me? I stood here and prayed for a son. God has answered my prayer. So now I give my son to God.'

Move Samuel to Eli. Kiss your finger and then touch the kiss on to Samuel's head. Turn Hannah round and move her back to the edge of the backcloth. Move Eli, with Samuel behind him, into the outer courtyard.

So Samuel served in the shrine. Every morning he opened the inner courtyard doors and did a priest's work.

Every night he slept by the ark.

Move Samuel to the entrance doors of the inner courtyard. Move Eli to the outer courtyard.

And every year, as he grew too big for his clothes, his mother brought him a new robe.

Touch Hannah and lay a small bundle of clothes in one of the rooms in the shrine.

Eli's two sons were priests, too, but they were greedy and bullying.

Touch the sons.

Eli warned his sons to start doing what God wanted but they did not listen.

But Samuel grew and was loved by God and by the people.

Lay Samuel asleep by the ark and Eli, also asleep, in the courtyard room.

One night, Samuel heard a voice. 'Samuel!'

As you say his name, bring your hand down in a cupping gesture around Samuel. Then move Samuel to Eli.

He ran to Eli. 'Here I am. You called me.'

'I didn't call; go back and lie down.'

Move Samuel back and lay him down again.

Again, Samuel heard a voice. 'Samuel!'

Repeat the actions - but don't rush them.

Again Samuel ran to Eli. 'Here I am; you called me.'

'I didn't call. Go back and lie down.'

Repeat the actions.

'Samuel!'

Repeat the actions.

'Here I am; you called me.'

The third time, Eli realized it was God calling. 'Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, 'Speak, Lord; your servant is listening.'

Bring Samuel back to lie by the ark.

'Samuel!'

Repeat the action and then cup your hand, palm down, over Samuel as if in blessing. Keep your hand there.

'Speak, Lord; your servant is listening.'

God came so close to Samuel and Samuel came so close to God that Samuel heard what God said to him.

He lay by the ark until morning, and then opened the inner shrine doors.

Move Samuel to the doors and Eli to mid-courtyard.

But he was afraid to tell Eli what God had said. Eli called him: 'Samuel, my son.'

'Here I am.'

'Tell me everything God said. Don't hide anything from me.'

So Samuel told Eli that God would bring Eli's family to an end.

Take away the sons. Touch Eli.

'He is the Lord. Let him do what is good in his eyes.'

Move Samuel back to the ark.

From that time on, God was with Samuel as he grew up, and Samuel let none of God's words fall to the ground. Everyone recognized Samuel as a prophet. And God continued to appear at Shiloh and spoke to Samuel there.

Cup Samuel in your hand.
