

Firstly pray, then see if the school has a website and look at the school values. Find out the head teacher's name and if any children or adults from your church family go to or have any connection with the school.